

Clients worldwide ask Raj Tents to tent their weddings. If you watch David Tutera's My Fair Wedding you will have seen Raj Tents in several episodes. The company also works in the Caribbean, Hawaii, and Mexico, for those clients who want to have a more intimate wedding away from their home.

Raj Tents has developed an exclusive inventory of tenting, especially for Indian weddings in the traditional red, orange and gold. Since South Asian weddings can be very involved and detailed, the tents can be refreshed with different accent items such as drapes and scalloping. Your guests can enter a new environment each time.

Apart from Indian weddings, Raj Tents offers great themes like beach chic, Moroccan party, French provincial, eclectic lounge, Napa wedding, or a classic cream wedding. Being based in LA means a lot of celebrity clients, including Goldie Hawn, Denzel Washington, Salma Hayek, Richard Branson, and David Beckham.

The company is a member of the Set Decorators Society of America. Recent films that feature our tents are Pirates of the Caribbean, Little Fockers, Bridesmaids, and Friends with Benefits, along with some of our favorite TV shows: Royal Pains, CSI Miami, Outsourced, Private Practice, Weeds, Beverly Hills 90210, and My Freaking Family.

Whatever your vision, Raj Tents brings it to glorious life!
